Government of India
Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship

New Delhi, dated: March 16, 2016

To Regional Director,
RDAT, Mumbai.

Subject: Provisional Certificates to Apprentices under ATS

Sir,

You may be aware that certificates need to be issued to the passed out candidates appeared for All India Trade Test (AITT) for apprentices. Due to some administrative reasons, the certificates for the candidates appeared during and after April 2015 are pending for issue. It may take some more time for issue of certificates in original by TT cell, DGT HQ, New Delhi. In order to avoid the inconvenience to apprentices who have passed the AITT, it is decided to issue provisional certificates.

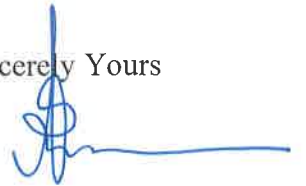

Hence you are requested to issue the provisional certificates to apprentices who have passed the AITT during and after April 2015.

There is also a VIP reference regarding 400 numbers of Apprentices from Railways who have not got their certificates. Please issue the certificates to them immediately.

This is issued with the approval of competent authority.

Format of certificate is attached.

Sincerely Yours

(T. C. Saravanabava)

Deputy Director General (AT)

DGT HQ, MSDE, New Delhi
